

Just Temple Privacy Policy and C.O.P.P.A. Compliance Statement

Information you share with us is used for Just Temple internal business purposes. Just Temple is not in the business of selling information about you. This notice tells you what information we collect, steps we take to protect and secure it, how we use and share the information, and finally, how you can access that information or contact us with questions or concerns.

Information We Gather

Just Temple collects personal information that you provide when you sign-up with us, or use Just Temple services available on the Just Temple web site. Just Temple does not share this information with any other clients, potential clients, or third party companies.

Just Temple does not collect information about your transactions with us. Just Temple feels this information needs to be as secure as possible. That's why payments due to us are done through PayPal. This way Just Temple does not even see your vital information, such as your credit card number.

Special Rules Information Relating to Children

The Children's Online Privacy Protection Act ("C.O.P.P.A.") requires that we inform parents and legal guardians about how we collect, use, and disclose personal information from children under 13 years of age.

When your child attempts to register and/or provide personal information to Just Temple, we require a parent or legal guardian to:

Complete the registration; review our privacy policy, provide valid email and verify through the use of an email confirmation and second authorization that the parent or guardian consents to the Terms of Service and this privacy policy.

Without verified parental notice and consent, we will not knowingly collect personal information relating to children under 13 years of age, and if we learn that we have inadvertently collected such information, we will promptly delete it.

Once parental notice and consent has been verified, your child will begin to receive newsletter, updates and other mailing about Just Temple.

PARENTAL REVIEW

In compliance with COPPA, a parent or legal guardian may request from us to review, delete or stop the collection of personally identifiable information relating to their child or any child in their legal custody who is under 13 years of age. You may by email info@justTemple.com.

Confidentiality and Security

We take seriously our obligation to safeguard the confidentiality, security and integrity of personal information collected from our customers, and have established and will maintain procedures that are designed for that purpose. Children and parents should be aware, however, that no system is completely secure from hackers, network failure and error, and we cannot guarantee the confidentiality, security and integrity of information maintained on our service. We do not share your information with unrelated third parties for their direct marketing purposes.
